

Adam Wayne

Of Counsel

adam.wayne@wilsonelser.com

Los Angeles, CA – 213.330.8923

Adam Wayne practices in the areas of general liability, professional liability, cannabis law, health care litigation, intellectual property and business litigation, focusing primarily on defending individuals and businesses.

Adam handles cases from inception through trial. Adam's approach to litigation focuses on efficient early case evaluation and spotting opportunities for early resolution, while simultaneously advocating zealously on behalf of his clients.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Adam worked at several insurance defense firms in Los Angeles, primarily in general liability defense.

During law school, Adam was a legal intern for the California Department of Insurance and California Public Utilities Commission.

Education

- Golden Gate University School of Law (J.D., 2018)
 - Highest Honors; Staff Writer, Golden Gate University Law Review
- University of Colorado (B.A., 2011)

Bar Admissions

- California

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court, Central District of California

Services

- Complex Tort & General Casualty
- Directors & Officers Liability
- Product Liability, Prevention & Government Compliance
- Professional Liability & Services
- Intellectual Property & Technology

Representative Matters

Recently second chaired a trial involving allegations of traumatic brain injury with successful results on behalf of the clients.

Publications

January 22, 2026

Artificial Intelligence in E-Discovery: TAR 2.0, CAL, and the New Fault Lines of ESI Protocol Negotiation