Atlanta, GA – 470.666.5879

Adian Miller has a broad range of legal experience in multiple jurisdictions across the country, performing plaintiff and defense representation for a wide variety of clients. Her practice includes the defense of claims related to employment and labor, general liability, premises liability, and personal injury. Adian is skilled in both hearing a client's wants and identifying a client's needs, and efficiently navigating that space through each phase of litigation. Adian prioritizes transparent, frank, and responsive communication, so her clients always have full control of their cases.

Employment

Adian brings almost two decades of experience in employment litigation specialization in the private and public sectors, and includes the successful litigation of both individual and collective actions.
