New York, NY – 212.915.5426

Alexander Kurrie defends against negligence-based lawsuits throughout the civil litigation process. He actively assists in the representation of property owners, commercial tenants, and construction companies.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Alex served as an Assistant District Attorney for the Manhattan District Attorney's Office. There, he prosecuted New York County felonies, including weapons cases and other high-profile matters. Alex conducted jury trials, numerous hearings, and presentations to New York County's Grand Jury. He carefully oversaw voluminous discovery review, motion practice, and the plea negotiating process.
