Chicago, IL – 312.821.6211

Alexandra Shenoo has a diverse civil litigation practice focused on professional liability defense. She represents attorneys, accountants, insurance agents, real estate agents and other professionals in defending malpractice actions and ancillary claims. Alexandra represents clients through all stages of litigation. Her experience enables her to implement effective defense strategies and resolution of claims.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Alexandra worked at a Chicago-based insurance defense firm, where she handled personal injury actions and represented insurance carriers, physicians and other healthcare professionals in medical malpractice claims. During law school, Alexandra was a law clerk at a Chicago firm where she honed her legal research and writing skills, drafting complaints, pleadings, and motions.
