San Francisco, CA – 415.625.9346

Ana Davila is a seasoned civil defense attorney with extensive experience representing multinational corporations, local businesses, nonprofits, and individuals in complex, multiparty litigation throughout California. Her practice focuses on defending a broad range of general liability claims, personal injury and premises liability litigation, and product liability matters. Ana has built a strong track record of successfully resolving disputes through dispositive motions, mediation, and strategic settlement negotiations.

Before joining Wilson Elser, Ana practiced at several leading defense firms recognized for their expertise in the insurance industry nationally and internationally. Her experience defending a diverse range of claims gives her a unique perspective and ability to identify pertinent issues and efficient resolution strategies.
