Houston, TX – 713.353.2013

Angela Morales represents companies and individuals in a wide array of civil litigation before state and federal courts. Her practice focuses on the defense of claims involving premises liability, trucking and automobile liability, construction, and business litigation. In addition, Angela is well-versed in handling cases related to general liability, construction defect, personal injury, catastrophic injury, wrongful death actions, and employment law litigation involving claims of negligent hiring, training, and supervision.

Before joining Wilson Elser, Angela worked at several boutique firms in Houston, where she gained valuable experience in plaintiff-side personal injury work, real estate and business litigation, and employment disputes. Early in her career, Angela supported the legal department of a global leader in specialty chemical, fiber, and resin production. Before attending law school, Angela managed legal and regulatory inquiries for the largest independent broker-dealer in the United States.
