New York, NY – 212.915.5524

Anna Turner focuses her practice on the defense of ride-share, construction and telecommunications companies. She adopts a steadfast, client-first approach aimed at achieving cost-effective resolutions. Anna is well versed in navigating issues relating to motor vehicle accidents and has extensive experience in the defense of New York Labor Law and premises liability matters.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Anna represented established business clients in construction, negligence, motor vehicle, product liability, real estate, breach of contract and intellectual property litigation, and provided startup counseling to tech and transportation businesses. She leverages her diverse experience to identify risk and liability mitigation opportunities and is committed to leveraging technology to secure expeditious results for her clients.
