

Ashley Hunsberger

Associate

ashley.hunsberger@wilsonelser.com

New York, NY – 212.915.5465

Ashley Hunsberger serves as claims, coverage, and monitoring counsel for various professional lines of insurance. She provides claims management, and risk management services. Ashley effectively evaluates and investigates claims, provides opinions on coverage, and retains and manages counsel for insureds.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Ashley worked at an established Washington, DC-based firm, where she provided coverage, liability, and damages analysis to insurers on matters arising from complex professional liability, pollution legal liability, cyber liability, directors and officers liability, and mortgage impairment claims.

Professional Liability

Ashley acts as claims, coverage, and monitoring counsel for professional lines insurers, providing claims management and coverage analysis on complex errors and omissions matters. Her background includes advising on exposures spanning professional liability, pollution legal liability, cyber, D&O, and mortgage impairment.

Directors & Officers Liability

Ashley evaluates and monitors D&O claims, offering coverage opinions and strategic guidance to insurers in matters involving management liability and related complex commercial disputes, informed by her prior work assessing D&O exposures and damages.

Employment Practices Liability

Ashley provides coverage assessments and claims management in employment practices liability matters, coordinating with defense counsel and insureds, and delivering risk management input aimed at efficient resolutions of workplace claims.

Education

Services

- Program Management
- Insurance & Reinsurance Coverage

- Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., cum laude, 2020)
 - Executive Editor, Food and Drug Law Journal
 - Student Attorney, Georgetown University Health Justice Alliance
- Elon University (B.A. Strategic Communications, cum laude, 2017)

Bar Admissions

- New York
- District of Columbia