White Plains, NY – 914.872.7489

Brendan Conway focuses his practice on civil litigation. He primarily handles personal injury defense and general liability matters, including premises liability claims. Brendan served as a law clerk at Wilson Elser before joining the firm as an associate attorney.

During law school, Brendan worked as a legal intern at two Rockland County firms, gaining valuable experience in estate planning, real estate matters and landlord-tenant litigation. The summer before his senior year in college, Brendan's passion for the law was fueled by a legal internship with the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Westchester County.
