Los Angeles, CA – 213.330.8910

Brianna Kang represents individuals and businesses in all aspects of civil litigation. Her practice focuses on the defense of claims involving general liability with an emphasis on transportation disputes. She effectively manages cases from the pre-litigation stage through discovery and settlement.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Brianna worked at an established California litigation firm specializing in the defense of insurance companies, corporations, and municipalities, where she gained valuable experience handling high-exposure personal injury claims and product liability litigation.
