

Brooke L. Findley

Of Counsel

brooke.findley@wilsonelser.com

Los Angeles, CA – 213.330.8840

Brooke Findley practices civil litigation, handling insurance defense construction defects, habitability, real estate, community association, and general liability matters with the goal of resolution. She has experience representing a broad range of clients, including developers, contractors, subcontractors, landowners, and community associations, as well as litigation experience with large-scale construction defect disputes arising in both government and private breach of contract actions, torts, misrepresentation, fraud, administrative law, and licensure disputes.

Before practicing in California, Brooke was licensed in Arizona for 20 years, where she also practiced in the areas of construction, development, real estate, community associations, commercial contract matters, insurance subrogation, collections, and AZ ROC administrative law hearings.

Education

- Thomas Jefferson School of Law (J.D., cum laude, 2004)
- University of California, San Diego (B.A. Communications, 2001)

Bar Admissions

- California
- Arizona

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court, Central District of California
- U.S. District Court, District of Arizona

Services

- Construction
- Complex Tort & General Casualty