San Diego, CA – 619.881.6453

Camelia Tirandazi represents a broad range of businesses and individuals in all aspects of civil litigation. Her practice focuses on the defense of complex aviation and aerospace claims, as well as commercial liability litigation involving general liability, product liability, premises liability, and personal injury. Camelia effectively handles all phases of litigation, including discovery management, drafting of dispositive motions, and conducting legal research and thorough case analysis. Clients appreciate Camelia's strategic and detail-oriented approach, emphasizing efficiency, collaboration, and practical solutions aligned with their goals and business objectives.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Camelia practiced at a civil litigation defense firm, where she gained extensive experience representing clients in general liability, product liability, and construction defect matters. Her multidisciplinary background in law and accounting enhances her ability to assess exposure, analyze damages, and develop data-driven litigation strategies.
