San Francisco, CA – 415.625.9366

Camille Legendre's practice primarily focuses on the defense of complex toxic tort claims. She also has experience defending against claims related to general liability matters, insurance defense, insurance coverage disputes, and real property litigation. In addition to her litigation work, Camille brings a background in corporate and transactional matters to her practice, having advised clients on shareholder disputes, corporate governance, and intellectual property issues.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Camille practiced at an established international firm, where she represented businesses and insurers in civil litigation and corporate disputes.

Toxic Tort

In the toxic tort area, Camille has successfully defended companies in litigation involving claims of exposure to asbestos and other hazardous substances. She effectively handles all phases of litigation, including discovery, motion practice, and trial preparation.

Insurance Coverage / Insurance Defense

In the insurance defense and coverage areas, Camille represents insurers and insureds in general liability disputes and property claims. She is well-versed in preparing dispositive motions, coverage opinions, and reservation of rights letters, and has achieved favorable outcomes through strategic motion practice and efficient case management.

General Liability and Premises Liability

In the general liability and premises liability arenas, Camille defends businesses, property owners, and individuals against claims involving personal injury and negligence. She is well-versed in handling matters from the initial pleadings stage through discovery and has obtained favorable rulings on motions and applications before the court.
