Atlanta, GA – 470.419.2117

Chelsea Cooke represents businesses and individuals in a broad range of civil litigation matters, with a focus on defending general liability, premises liability, wrongful death, automobile liability, and trucking matters. She handles cases from inception through resolution in state and federal courts, with an emphasis on careful case evaluation, clear client communication, and practical litigation strategies.

Before joining Wilson Elser, Chelsea practiced in both insurance defense and plaintiff-side personal injury litigation, gaining experience on both sides of civil disputes. She served as first-chair trial counsel in multiple matters, and her plaintiff-side experience provided insight into how claims are developed, evaluated, and presented. Chelsea draws on that perspective to identify key issues early and develop effective defense strategies for her clients.
