Detroit, MI – 313.335.3832

Christina Ann Rivera is a trial-focused Michigan attorney concentrating on complex civil litigation, insurance defense, and Michigan No-Fault matters. Her practice centers on defending high-exposure claims, including personal injury protection (PIP) disputes, third-party automobile negligence claims, and premises liability matters such as slip-and-fall cases. She often defends trucking companies and their drivers under Michigan law. Christina has tried more than 20 cases to verdict and conducted numerous arbitrations in a variety of areas, including landlord-tenant, criminal, and Michigan No-Fault matters.

With extensive experience litigating Michigan No-Fault cases, Christina represents insurers, self-insured entities, and businesses in all phases of litigation, from pre-suit investigation through trial and appeal. She is skilled at handling contested PIP benefit claims, coverage disputes, and complex liability issues arising under Michigan's No-Fault Automobile Insurance Act.

Christina is known for her strategic, trial-ready approach and her ability to develop strong factual and legal defenses in high-stakes cases. She regularly conducts depositions, argues dispositive motions, and serves as lead counsel in arbitration and trial proceedings. Her advocacy is grounded in thorough case analysis, aggressive motion practice, and meticulous trial preparation.

Committed to effective, efficient representation, Christina works closely with her clients to manage risk, control litigation costs, and achieve favorable outcomes. She is respected for her professionalism, attention to detail, and unwavering dedication to defending her clients' interests in Michigan state and federal courts.
