Orlando, FL – 407.861.3809

Christine Fikry handles first-party property matters, including claims of property loss as well as legal issues involved in property insurance claim assessment and handling, coverage analysis and claims resolution. Christine has a demonstrated ability to take on new responsibilities and become a resource to her peers.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Christine worked in-house with a major carrier handling primarily first-party property matters, while assisting on bodily injury, premises liability, general liability and construction defect matters. Previously, she worked for a private defense firm as the lead attorney on all PIP lawsuits in Central Florida while handling a range of other matters.
