New York, NY – 212.915.5285

Cian McGeever focuses his practice on the defense claims involving general liability, premises liability, construction defects, labor and employment disputes, motor vehicle accidents and personal injury. He has extensive litigation experience from case inception to trial and skillfully handles all phases of litigation. Cian is well-versed in trial preparation, reporting, motion practice and discovery, and managing court appearances and mediation.

Before joining Wilson Elser, Cian worked at a large global law firm handling diverse litigation matters. Previously, he was an associate at a large national firm and a boutique practice, where he gained substantial experience in commercial litigation and insurance defense. Cian's early plaintiff-side work at a firm specializing in personal injury and medical malpractice litigation enhances his ability to evaluate legal issues and assess all sides in a conflict in developing effective defense strategies.
