Atlanta, GA – 470.419.6664

Courtney Wendler is a dedicated insurance defense attorney with extensive experience representing insurers and employers in all aspects of complex civil litigation. Her practice focuses on the defense of claims involving transportation, complex tort and general casualty, and workers' compensation matters. Courtney works closely with her clients and has built a reputation for strategic advocacy, thorough case analysis, and an unwavering commitment to achieving favorable and cost-effective outcomes.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Courtney worked at a regional insurance defense firm, where she handled workers' compensation claims and insurance coverage litigation. Previously, Courtney practiced at an established Georgia firm, where she represented claimants injured in the workplace. Courtney's claimant-side work enables her to anticipate claimants' arguments and evaluate potential risk exposure in crafting effective defense strategies.
