Eghosasere (Eghosa) Idemudia focuses on complex civil litigation and insurance defense. He represents corporations, property owners, and insurers in matters involving personal injury, premises liability, product liability, and transportation-related claims.

Eghosa manages cases from inception through resolution, including motion practice, depositions, expert analysis, and settlement strategy. He is known for his ability to distill complex medical, technical, and factual issues into clear, persuasive advocacy.

Eghosa has defended high-exposure claims arising from motor vehicle accidents, slip-and-fall and negligent security incidents, industrial and workplace accidents, and contractual indemnification and coverage matters. He regularly evaluates complex medical and technical records, works with expert consultants, and develops defense strategies focused on liability mitigation, risk transfer, and efficient resolution.
