

Eric D. Hevenor

Of Counsel

eric.hevenor@wilsonelser.com

Portland, OR – 971.717.2773

Eric Hevenor represents individuals and businesses in civil disputes involving general liability, bodily injury, automobile liability, and premises liability. He has defended clients in catastrophic injury and wrongful death claims and advises and defends insurers in insurance bad faith matters involving both coverage and litigation issues. His experience includes obtaining favorable outcomes in bad faith disputes arising from underlying matters such as construction defects, gas explosions, and UIM/UM claims.

Eric has extensive experience defending clients in complex professional liability matters in both civil litigation and administrative proceedings. His professional liability practice includes the defense of legal and medical malpractice claims, as well as administrative proceedings involving appraisers, accountants, and other professionals. In addition, he represents municipalities and school districts in a broad range of matters, including civil rights, parental rights, and wrongful termination claims, as well as administrative complaints.

Education

- Lewis & Clark Law School (J.D., 2007)
- Metropolitan State University of Denver (B.A., 2003)

Bar Admissions

- Wyoming
- Pennsylvania

Court Admissions

- Court of Appeals Colorado

Services

- Complex Tort & General Casualty
- Insurance Regulatory & Compliance
- Construction

- Supreme Court of Colorado
- U.S. District Court, District of Colorado
- Supreme Court of Wyoming
- U.S. District Court, District of Wyoming
- U.S. Court of Appeals, Tenth Circuit

Representative Matters

Obtained summary judgment on multiple Section 1983 claims alleging violations of parental rights and religious discrimination against a school district arising from allegations that it withheld information regarding a student's gender transition.

Secured dismissal of a Colorado Premises Liability Act claim arising from a stabbing at a local tavern.

Obtained summary judgment on a multimillion-dollar insurance bad faith claim alleging the improper denial of coverage for latent defects.

Secured dismissal of a municipality from a Section 1983 action arising from allegations of excessive force.