Associate

evan.heckler@wilsonelser.com

New York, NY – 212.915.5311

Evan Heckler provides claims management, insurance coverage analysis and risk management services to insurers engaged in underwriting or reinsuring programs for various professional lines. He serves as claims and coverage counsel and provides opinions in coverage matters arising from business disputes and corporate insurance defense, with a concentration on professional liability matters involving directors and officers and other professionals' errors and omissions, employment practices and cyber liability programs.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Evan's practice focused on condominium and cooperatives law, where he represented private clients and insureds in a wide array of real estate disputes, as well as employment litigation related to discrimination and wrongful termination claims. Previously, Evan handled a diverse range of complex civil litigation, including claims involving premises liability, labor law matters and pharmacy malpractice actions.
