San Francisco, CA – 415.625.9317

Gabrielle Sullera represents established businesses in all aspects of civil litigation. Her practice focuses on the defense of claims related to general liability and commercial litigation. Gabrielle adeptly handles all phases of litigation from initial case assessment and detailed strategy development through resolution. She is skilled in drafting pleadings, managing discovery, preparing persuasive dispositive motions and challenging opposing motions, negotiating settlements, and assisting with trial preparation. Gabrielle prioritizes clear communication and providing strategic guidance to protect clients' interests and achieve favorable outcomes.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Gabrielle worked at a San Francisco law firm, where her practice centered on intellectual property matters and commercial litigation, including trademark prosecution and enforcement.
