

Geetpreet Singh Gill

Associate

geetpreetsingh.gill@wilsonelser.com

New York, NY – 212.915.5939

Geetpreet Singh Gill represents individuals and businesses in all aspects of civil litigation. His practice focuses on the defense of claims related to general liability, premises liability, construction defect, and complex tort and general casualty. In addition, Geetpreet defends clients against motor vehicle accident and negligence claims. He adeptly handles matters from inception through resolution and strives to resolve matters at the pre-trial stage to help clients manage risk and avoid costly litigation.

Before joining Wilson Elser, Geetpreet worked at a New York firm, where he represented insurance carriers in contract law disputes and the defense of claims in a broad range of practice areas. Previously, Geetpreet gained valuable experience at a boutique firm handling plaintiff-side cases with an emphasis on commercial litigation. His past plaintiff work enables him to anticipate plaintiffs' claims in the development of effective defense strategies.

Education

- Cornell Law School (LL.M. Banking, Corporate Finance and Securities Law, 2021)
 - Merit Scholarship
- University of Delhi, India (LL.B., 2017)
- University of Delhi, India (B.COM., with honors, 2013)

Bar Admissions

- New York

Court Admissions

Services

- Complex Tort & General Casualty

- U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York
- U.S. District Court, Eastern District of New York

Professional Affiliations

American Bar Association