Houston, TX – 713.353.2033

Grant McDonald represents businesses and individuals in all aspects of civil litigation throughout the State of Texas. His practice encompasses the defense of claims across various practice areas, including general liability, automobile liability, premises liability, personal injury, and commercial disputes.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Grant gained substantial experience in family law matters and alternative dispute resolution at a firm in Houston, Texas. Previously, he worked at a medical malpractice and personal injury firm representing plaintiffs. Grants plaintiff-side work enables him to anticipate plaintiffs' claims in developing effective defense strategies.

Insurance Defense & Commercial Litigation

In the area of insurance defense, Grant has successfully represented individuals and businesses in automobile and premises liability litigation. Additionally, he has successfully defended companies against catastrophic injury claims in and outside the State of Texas, as well as prosecuted and defended businesses in commercial disputes involving breach of contract, breach of warranty, and contractual indemnification.
