Chicago, IL – 312.821.7609

Jacob Beaupre focuses his practice on insurance coverage and related litigation. He regularly advises clients on complex coverage issues, providing comprehensive coverage analysis and claims-handling strategies. Jacob is well-versed in litigating coverage and bad faith claims for general and specialty lines insurance companies and reinsurance companies. He prides himself on delivering practical, business-oriented guidance on high-stakes coverage matters.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Jacob gained substantial coverage experience representing insurers at a boutique Chicago-based law firm. During law school, Jacob served as a judicial extern to the Honorable William J. Bauer of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.
