New York, NY – 212.915.5847

Jacqueline Orcutt defends hospitals, physicians, and other medical providers against medical malpractice claims. Her strong work ethic and substantial courtroom experience enabled her to transition to this practice area after more than a decade devoted to mental health, public health, and health care-related litigation.

Jacqueline is also active in community service, volunteering with Queens Community House, Animal Care Centers of NYC, and the Alzheimer's Association.
