

Joevahny Abichet

Associate

joevahny.abichet@wilsonelser.com

Long Island, NY – 516.203.8848

Joevahny Abichet is a litigator with broad experience representing corporations, insurance companies, transportation and trucking companies, nonprofit organizations, religious organizations, and municipalities in all aspects of civil litigation. His practice focuses on defending claims related to premises liability, motor vehicle liability, personal injury, complex torts, and labor law disputes.

Before joining Wilson Elser, Joevahny practiced at a Long Island-based litigation defense firm, where he gained extensive experience handling general liability and intentional tort matters and aggressively defended corporate clients and insurers against a wide array of civil claims.

Education

- Boston College Law School (J.D., 2024)
- Farmingdale State College (B.S. Science, Technology & Society, 2018)

Bar Admissions

- New York
- Massachusetts

Services

- Complex Tort & General Casualty
- Construction
- Employment & Labor