John Iorio's practice concentrates on advising professional and management liability insurers. He provides coverage evaluations, monitors underlying litigation, and helps guide the resolution of claims involving lawyers, insurance agents and brokers, employers, and corporate directors and officers.

Professional Liability

John represents insurers in a wide range of professional liability matters. He evaluates coverage under various professional lines policies, including those issued to law firms, insurance agents and brokers, and other service professionals. His work includes assessing potential exposure, advising on coverage positions, and monitoring the defense of underlying claims.

Directors & Officers Liability

John supports D&O insurers by providing coverage assessments and claims oversight involving corporate governance disputes, regulatory investigations, and other management liability exposures. He reviews pleadings, tracks the progress of underlying litigation, and offers guidance on strategy, settlement, and allocation issues to help insurers manage risk and resolve claims efficiently.
