Charlotte, NC – 704.302.1387

Julianna Grant represents corporate entities, insurance companies, and individual insureds in all aspects of civil litigation. Her practice focuses on the defense of claims related to general liability, personal injury, and business litigation. Julianna's background in insurance defense and corporate litigation furthers her successful defense of personal injury claims and business disputes. She effectively handles all phases of litigation from the pre-suit stage through resolution, as well as through the use of alternative dispute resolution methods.

Julianna has also connected her equestrian experience with her litigation practice, working alongside a lead equestrian Wilson Elser defense litigator to defend horse owners, property owners, stable owners, and English and Western training facilities against personal injury and property damage complaints brought in connection with equestrian sports.
