

Kathryn Rowe

Associate

kathryn.rowe@wilsonelser.com

Jackson, MS – 601.499.8081

Kathryn Rowe represents companies and insurers in commercial and complex tort litigation. Her practice focuses on the defense of claims involving general liability, premises liability, transportation/trucking liability, professional liability, and personal injury. Additionally, Kathryn is well-versed in handling first-party and third-party insurance coverage matters for clients in the United States and the London Insurance Market.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Kathryn worked at an established civil defense firm in Jackson, Mississippi. Previously, she gained valuable experience related to plaintiff-side litigation at a personal injury firm, enhancing her ability to evaluate all sides in a conflict in crafting effective defense strategies.

Professional Liability

In her civil litigation practice, Kathryn has successfully defended against professional liability and personal injury claims brought against companies, governmental entities, and contractors.

Education

- University of Mississippi School of Law (J.D., cum laude, 2021)
- University of Mississippi (B.A., 2018)

Bar Admissions

- Mississippi

Court Admissions

- Supreme Court of Mississippi

Services

- Complex Tort & General Casualty
- Insurance & Reinsurance Coverage
- Commercial Litigation

- U.S. Court of Appeals, Fifth Circuit
- U.S. District Court, Northern District of Mississippi
- U.S. District Court, Southern District of Mississippi

Professional Affiliations

- Mississippi Bar Association
- Capital Area Bar Association
- Jackson Young Lawyers
- Mississippi Defense Lawyers Association

Representative Matters

Obtained summary judgment based on the borrowed employee doctrine in a personal injury matter brought against a school district by a contract employee.

Obtained a defense verdict in a first-party property matter involving a total loss dispute.

Obtained summary judgment on medical causation in a personal injury matter in federal court.