

Lauren R. Deming

Of Counsel

lauren.deming@wilsonelser.com

Orlando, FL – 689.686.7014

Lauren Deming has devoted her practice to personal injury litigation for 17 years. She focuses on wrongful death, catastrophic injury, automobile liability, premises liability, trucking liability, and nursing home negligence matters. Having represented both plaintiffs and defendants, she brings a well-rounded perspective to evaluating claims, developing litigation strategy, and advocating for her clients.

Before joining Wilson Elser, Lauren practiced in-house with one of Florida's largest automobile insurers, defending bodily injury claims and related disputes. Prior to that, she was a partner at a national insurance defense firm, where she represented major retailers, theme parks, nursing homes, governmental agencies, and other businesses in premises liability, personal injury, and wrongful death matters. Earlier in her career, she practiced at a national plaintiffs' firm, focusing on catastrophic injury and wrongful death litigation.

Outside the office, Lauren enjoys running, traveling, spending time outdoors, and cheering on the Florida Gators and Tampa Bay Buccaneers with her family, including her two daughters.

Education

- Barry University, Dwayne O. Andreas School of Law (J.D., 2009)
 - Managing Editor, Barry Law Review
 - Book Awards: Product Liability, Intellectual Property, International Law of the Sea
- University of Florida (B.A., 2005)

Bar Admissions

- Florida

Services

- Complex Tort & General Casualty
- Product Liability, Prevention & Government Compliance
- Transportation
- Specialty Professional Risks
- Health Care Law
- Long-Term Care

