Louisville, KY – 502.434.5012

Lindsay Porter represents individuals and established businesses in all aspects of civil litigation. Her practice focuses on the defense of claims involving personal injury, automobile liability, and premises liability, including dram shop cases.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Lindsay worked at a Louisville, Kentucky, firm, where her practice centered on insurance defense and personal injury litigation. Previously, Lindsay practiced at a national firm specializing in civil litigation matters, including corporate and business law, and commercial litigation. In addition, Lindsay gained valuable insight into criminal law and procedure as an Assistant Commonwealth Attorney in the Office of the Commonwealth's Attorney in Jefferson County, Kentucky.

Personal Injury & Automobile Liability

Lindsay has successfully defended insured individuals and businesses against bodily injury claims resulting from motor vehicle accidents.

Premises Liability / Dram Shop Liability

In the premises liability area, Lindsay has successfully handled cases for local businesses involving slip and fall incidents and various bodily injury claims. Additionally, she has successfully defended establishments against high-exposure dram shop claims, drawing on her experience as a prosecutor and in handling auto accident litigation to achieve favorable outcomes for clients.
