New York, NY – 212.915.5783

Logan Youngworth-Wright represents established businesses and individuals in all aspects of civil litigation. Her practice focuses on the defense of claims related to general liability, premises liability, automobile liability, labor law disputes, and construction litigation. Logan's litigation approach reflects her diverse background and experience. She prides herself on managing client communications with clarity and transparency, ensuring expectations remain aligned throughout every stage of the legal process.

Before joining Wilson Elser, Logan practiced at a respected New York City litigation firm, where she gained extensive experience handling wrongful death actions, personal injury claims, and commercial litigation. Previously, Logan was an Assistant Corporation Counsel for the New York City Law Department, Family Court Division, where she was a member of the Special Victims Unit, prosecuting crimes involving domestic violence and sexual assault. Logan's work with victims of high-level crimes, including felonies and sexual assaults, equips her to navigate both complex legal challenges and the emotional nuances of each case with compassion and respect.

After law school, Logan was a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Marcia L. Silva in the Superior Court of New Jersey, Chancery Division, Family Part, in New Brunswick. In addition, she served as a court-appointed mediator, conducting mediations for small claims matters.
