

Matias Valenzuela

Associate

matias.valenzuela@wilsonelser.com

Miami, FL – 305.395.5605

Matias Valenzuela represents established businesses in all aspects of civil litigation. His practice focuses on defending claims related to general, product, and premises liability. He also has experience in securities legislation and insurance coverage and first-party property litigation. He also brings experience in securities regulation from his internship with the SEC and insurance coverage and first-party property litigation from his prior firm.

Education

- American University Washington College of Law (J.D., 2024)
 - Note & Comment Editor, American University Law Review
- The George Washington University (B.A. International Affairs, 2020)

Bar Admissions

- Florida

Languages

- Spanish

Services

- Complex Tort & General Casualty
- Insurance & Reinsurance Defense
- Commercial Litigation