

Matthew C. Casey

Of Counsel

matt.casey@wilsonelser.com

Portland, OR – 971.717.2769

Matt Casey is an accomplished trial lawyer and litigator who defends businesses and individuals involved in personal injury and products liability lawsuits. Matt handles all aspects of defense, and has represented clients through trial in auto, trucking, premises liability, products liability, and boundary dispute matters. Matt clerked for one year at the Oregon Department of Justice.

Product Liability

Matt has successfully handled personal injury cases brought against a variety of designers and manufacturers of products, including heavy equipment, construction products, and household appliances.

Education

- Willamette University College of Law (J.D., 1998)
 - Willamette Law Review, Articles Editor
 - Honors, Legal Research and Writing
 - High Exam, Product Liability and Workers' Compensation
- Santa Clara University (B.S. Political Science, 1995)

Bar Admissions

- Oregon

Court Admissions

- U.S. Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit

Services

- Complex Tort & General Casualty
- Product Liability, Prevention & Government Compliance

- U.S. District Court, District of Oregon

Professional Affiliations

Oregon Association of Defense Counsel

Awards & Honors

- Selected for inclusion in Best Lawyers in America®, 2026
- Selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers®, 2017– 2019
- Selected for inclusion in SuperLawyers® Rising Stars™, 2008, 2010–2013

Representative Matters

Obtained a defense verdict at trial in a boundary dispute / timber trespass matter, and a ruling that his client's understanding of the property line and its harvesting of several acres of timber was rightful.

Obtained a defense verdict in motor vehicle accident for a defendant who rear-ended plaintiff's vehicle.

On trial team that obtained a directed verdict in a product liability lawsuit after excluding plaintiff's primary "defect" expert.

Obtained several verdicts at trial where the jury's award was considerably lower than plaintiff's last settlement demand.