Miami, FL – 305.395.5620

Mayada Hussaini focuses on general liability, automobile liability, premises liability, and personal injury. She has substantial experience handling a broad range of insurance defense matters, including high-exposure personal injury and property damage claims.

Mayada is involved in all phases of litigation, evaluating risk to develop strategy while driving cases toward efficient resolution. Her experience includes managing discovery, taking and defending depositions, handling motion practice, and representing clients in mediation.

Before joining Wilson Elser, Mayada practiced for five years at a prominent Florida-based insurance defense firm, where she represented insureds, corporate entities, and businesses in complex, high-exposure litigation matters.

Premises Liability

Mayada regularly defends premises liability actions, with a particular focus on duty, notice, and control. She leverages factual development and deposition testimony to support dispositive motion practice.

Automobile Negligence

Mayada represents defendants in complex motor vehicle accident cases involving disputed liability and multiparty claims, with a strong emphasis on comparative fault defenses.

Representative Matters

Obtained final summary judgment on behalf of a commercial gym in a breach of contract/premises liability action, where the court enforced a clear and unambiguous liability waiver and rejected plaintiff's expert affidavit as inadmissible.

Secured dismissal of a civil lawsuit in Miami-Dade County through a disciplined discovery strategy, successfully leveraging plaintiff's repeated failure to comply with discovery obligations, including nonappearance at deposition, to obtain case-ending relief.
