

Michael T. Relihan

Of Counsel

michael.relihan@wilsonelser.com

Tampa, FL – 689.686.7015

Michael Relihan represents companies and individuals in complex litigation and high-exposure claims. Michael has consistently demonstrated the ability to analyze, anticipate and litigate a wide range of cases involving catastrophic losses, personal injury, premises liability, construction defects and fire claims using strategic and aggressive strategies.

Michael's experience includes representing a number of top 500 companies, insurers, retailers, transportation companies, developers, contractors and governmental entities in state and federal courts throughout Florida. Michael has obtained multiple orders granting summary judgment and has successfully defended matters on appeal.

Premises Liability

Michael has experience litigating complex and high-exposure claims brought against retailers, hotels, and condo and homeowners associations, including successfully disposing of cases on summary judgment.

Commercial Litigation

Michael's commercial experience includes contract disputes and enforcement, deceptive and unfair trade practices claims, and sale/lease of goods disputes.

Construction

Michael has represented developers, design professionals and contractors in construction defect claims. He also has experience in enforcement and defense of construction lien claims.

Education

- Stetson University College of Law (J.D., 2014)

Services

- Complex Tort & General Casualty
- Commercial Litigation
- Construction

- University of South Florida (B.A. International Studies, 2009)

Bar Admissions

- Florida

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court, Middle District of Florida
- U.S. District Court, Southern District of Florida

Professional Affiliations

- Hillsborough County Bar Association

Representative Matters

Obtained orders granting summary judgment in premises liability cases on issues including absence of duty, notice and causation in state and federal courts.