Houston, TX – 713.353.2020

A pragmatic, outcome-oriented litigator, Nadia Savo prioritizes working quickly and efficiently to assist her client from start to finish. Whether through early case resolution or trial, she always aims to provide her clients with the best results possible. Nadia works closely with corporate insurance companies and insured clients to provide ongoing analysis of potential liability and exposure, advising them on legal strategies to obtain favorable results.

Complex Tort & General Casualty

Nadia focuses on general civil litigation, premises liability, personal injury, and insurance defense. She has extensive experience defending individuals and insurance companies in first-party insurance investigations and lawsuits involving personal injury, motor vehicle accidents, and premises liability. Nadia has also handled claims involving medical malpractice, labor and employment, dram shops, and first-party property.
