

Natasha A. Fingar

Associate

natasha.fingar@wilsonelser.com

Seattle, WA – 206.709.5888

Natasha Fingar focuses her practice on civil litigation defense with an emphasis on medical malpractice and health care liability matters. She primarily represents insureds in a wide range of litigation, including the defense of claims related to motor vehicle accidents, professional liability, and premises liability.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Natasha was an associate at an established Seattle practice specializing in insurance defense. During law school, she gained valuable experience as an intern at a firm in Dedham, Massachusetts, where she honed her legal writing and communication skills and assisted with various aspects of trial preparation. Additionally, Natasha interned at a Boston family law firm, where she drafted grievances for clients appealing Department of Children and Families (DCF) decisions.

Education

- New England Law | Boston (J.D., 2024)
 - Senior Executive Editor, New England Law Review
 - CALI Award for Excellence in Law and Ethics of Lawyering, Contracts II, and Property II
 - Justice Sandra Day O'Connor Merit Scholarship
- Bowdoin College (B.A. Psychology; Government and Legal Studies, 2021)

Bar Admissions

- Washington

Court Admissions

Services

- Medical Malpractice & Health Care

- U.S. District Court, Western District of Washington

Professional Affiliations

Washington State Bar Association