

Neil L. Prupis

Partner

neil.prupis@wilsonelser.com

Madison, NJ – 973.735.5775

Neil Prupis, is well known among wealth managers and accounting firms as a reliable and trusted provider of legal financial services. Neil concentrates his practice on health care, taxation and transactional law and related advisory services. His clients, most of whom are entrepreneurs, look to him for advice regarding event-driven agreements, such as those involving the organization of companies, financing and loans, joint ventures, divestitures and dissolutions, and more.

Neil served as law secretary to the Honorable Theodore I. Botter, Judge, Superior Court of New Jersey. In law school, Neil was a member of the Rutgers Law Review, the flagship publication among the five accredited law journals at Rutgers School of Law. He has been an active member of the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE) for many years and is much in demand for his signature lectures on health care law and taxation. He is a frequent moderator for ICLE panel discussions.

Health Care

Neil provides a full range of corporate, transactional, litigation, tax and estate planning services to health care clients, including physicians, dentists, chiropractors, physical therapists, nurses and other professionals as well as group practices, home and residential health care services, durable medical equipment companies, practice management groups, ambulatory surgical centers and medical billing companies.

Neil also provides litigation and transactional services, such as physician employment agreements, health care litigation, hospital contracts, provider reimbursement and recovery, asset purchase agreements, shareholder agreements, provider appeals, employment and shareholder litigation, arbitrations, licensing, non-compete issues and operating agreements.

Tax Planning & Tax Controversies

Services

- Accountants
- Commercial Litigation
- Commercial Contracts & Agreements
- Health Care Law
- Life, Health, Disability & ERISA
- Securities

Neil has a successful practice providing business entities with a range of services, including corporate business taxation, state and local taxation, succession planning, tax audits and litigation, structural tax-free reorganizations, partnership and LLC taxation, sales and use tax, executive compensation, employee benefits and international tax issues.

Nonprofit organizations rely on Neil for services such as entity formation and qualification, maintaining tax-exempt status and individuals for personal matters, including gift and estate tax planning, executive compensation, wealth and asset preservation, and tax audits and litigation.

Corporate & Business Law

In the realm of corporate and business law, Neil advises and assists with entity selection and formation, shareholder agreements, LLC operating agreements, partnership agreements, employment agreements, succession planning, mergers and acquisitions, stock options, stock purchase agreements, loans and other financing, business contracts, private placements, securities law and commercial transactions.

Education

- New York University School of Law (LL.M., 1974)
 - Taxation
- Rutgers School of Law (J.D., 1971)
 - Rutgers Law Review
- Rutgers University–Newark (B.A., 1968)

Bar Admissions

- New Jersey

Court Admissions

- U.S. Court of Appeals, Third Circuit
- U.S. Court of Appeals, Fifth Circuit
- U.S. Tax Court

Professional Affiliations

- Essex County Bar Association
- New Jersey State Bar Association