Atlanta, GA – 470.419.2113

Nicole Constante represents businesses, insurers, and individuals in all aspects of civil litigation, with a primary focus on the defense of claims involving trucking and transportation, general liability, personal injury, premises liability, and commercial disputes. Nicole brings strong experience managing complex litigation from initial pleadings through discovery, motion practice, case evaluation, and trial preparation. She provides detailed liability analyses, drafts strategic case assessments, and collaborates closely with adjusters, experts, and clients to develop efficient and effective resolution strategies.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Nicole practiced at a regional defense firm where she handled transportation and general liability matters for corporate clients and national carriers. She managed discovery, drafted and responded to motions, reviewed driver qualification files and accident data, coordinated expert inspections, and prepared defense counsel evaluations in high-exposure trucking and premises liability cases.

Trucking & Transportation

Nicole's trucking and transportation practice includes defending motor carriers, logistics companies, and commercial drivers in claims involving motor vehicle accidents, cargo disputes, and alleged safety violations. She has experience evaluating driver qualification files, hours-of-service records, dash-cam footage, electronic control module (ECM) downloads, and accident reconstruction materials. Nicole has assisted in coordinating expert inspections, analyzing liability and damages exposure, drafting defense counsel evaluations, and developing early-resolution strategies for national carriers. Her approach emphasizes thorough investigation, responsive case management, and clear communication with adjusters and insureds.

General Liability / Complex Tort

Nicole defends businesses and individuals in a wide range of general liability matters, including premises liability, negligent security, personal injury, and complex tort claims. She adeptly drafts pleadings, motions, and discovery responses; analyzes medical records and factual reports; prepares deposition materials; and communicates regularly with carriers regarding case status, evaluation, and strategy. Nicole's ability to synthesize complex factual scenarios and identify key liability issues enables her to deliver efficient assessments and guide clients toward effective and timely resolutions.

Commercial Litigation

Nicole's commercial litigation experience includes assisting corporate clients with contract disputes, breach of agreement matters, and business tort claims. She has drafted legal memoranda, reviewed corporate disclosures, supported internal investigations, and contributed to the development of litigation strategies involving commercial contracts and regulatory considerations. Her background with national and multinational corporations, including her legal internship with a leading global technology company, provides her with a strong understanding of business priorities, risk management considerations, and practical approaches to resolving commercial conflicts.
