Philip Andrews is a seasoned litigator who represents clients in the insurance and transportation industries in all aspects of complex tort and commercial litigation. Experienced in handling a wide range of disputes and legal issues, Philip provides clients with creative, cost-effective solutions aligned with their goals and objectives. He has successfully argued numerous motions in state and federal courts, including at the appellate level. In addition to his trial work, Philip is well-versed in advising commercial clients on the formation, negotiation, and finalization of various contracts.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Philip practiced at a boutique firm specializing in corporate litigation and trial work, where he litigated commercial and tort matters. Previously, he served as an Assistant Attorney General for the State of Illinois. Leveraging his diverse legal background, Philip delivers strategic, results-oriented representation to clients across a broad spectrum of practice areas.
