Los Angeles, CA – 949.404.3413

Phuong Anh Luu focuses her practice on insurance coverage analysis and litigation, advising insurers on a wide range of matters involving commercial general liability, homeowners, property, personal and advertising injury, construction defect, habitability, and other liability claims. Her work includes evaluating complex pleadings, policy language, and claim materials and developing coverage positions through reservation of rights letters, disclaimers, coverage opinions, and related correspondence.

Before joining Wilson Elser, Phuong represented insurers in coverage disputes, declaratory relief actions, interpleader matters, and claims involving primary and excess policies. She also has significant litigation experience in state and federal courts, including motion practice, depositions, discovery, and case management. Earlier in her career, Phuong served as a Deputy Public Defender, gaining substantial courtroom experience, including jury trials, client counseling, and oral advocacy.

Insurance Coverage

Phuong's practice focuses on coverage analysis and counseling for insurers in third-party liability and first-party property matters. She has experience analyzing coverage under commercial general liability, homeowners, commercial liability, and excess policies, including claims involving bodily injury, property damage, personal and advertising injury, construction defect, habitability, false advertising, and consumer class actions.
