

Regina Sada

Associate

regina.sada@wilsonelser.com

Dallas, TX – 214.698.8049

Regina Sada represents clients and businesses in all aspects of civil litigation. Her practice focuses on the defense of general liability claims, including premises liability, personal injury, and litigation including transportation and adventure park matters.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Regina worked at a full-service national litigation firm, where her civil litigation practice spanned a wide range of practice areas. Notably, Regina obtained favorable results before the Texas Supreme Court, impacting arbitration agreements across the state.

Premises Liability

In the premise liability area, Regina has successfully defended adventure park industry franchisees and franchisors against complex injury claims.

Education

- SMU Dedman School of Law (J.D., 2021)
- The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (B.A., summa cum laude, 2017)

Bar Admissions

- Texas
- Oklahoma

Professional Affiliations

- Dallas Bar Association
- Dallas Hispanic Bar Association

Services

- Insurance & Reinsurance Defense
- Commercial Litigation
- Appellate

- U.S.-Mexico Bar Association (USMBA)

Languages

- Spanish

Representative Matters

Secured a Texas Supreme Court appellate win, successfully compelling a case to arbitration.

Prevailed on multiple summary judgment motions in district court, including summary judgment motions involving gross negligence claims.