Reid Harris represents established businesses and individuals in all aspects of civil litigation. Her practice is focused in the area of complex tort and general casualty, assisting clients in preventing, mitigating, and managing exposure through risk, crises, and claims and litigation management.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Reid worked at a New York firm handling insurance defense matters related to construction accidents, premises liability, and medical malpractice. Previously, Reid served as an Assistant District Attorney at the Queens County District Attorney's Office where she investigated and prosecuted a variety of felony cases and handled the prosecution of these cases from arrest to sentencing, including investigations, grand jury presentations, suppression hearings and trials. She also served as a rider for the Career Criminal Major Crimes Bureau where she drafted search warrants, conducted interviews of key witnesses, and responded to crime scenes.
