Miami, FL – 305.395.5598

Rob Ureta handles complex civil litigation matters in state and federal courts involving insurance and general liability defense of matters including professional liability, premises liability, negligent security, personal injury, product liability, wrongful death, automobile/trucking liability, contract disputes and indemnification disputes.

Rob also has represented large and small corporations in a wide range of business law matters including business litigation, commercial and contractual disputes, business formation, business planning, and mergers and acquisitions. In addition, Rob has extensive experience in the areas of commercial and residential real estate transactions involving purchases, sales and financing transactions.

In combination with his extensive litigation experience in the business arena, Rob brings a unique perspective to the practice of law, enabling him to anticipate issues that may arise in contractual documents he prepares for clients.

Professional Liability

In his professional liability practice, Rob has successfully defended attorney clients and other professionals against claims brought under errors and omissions (E&O) policies. In addition to representing lawyers, his E&O experience extends to the defense real estate appraisers, real estate brokers, title insurance agents, title abstractors, home inspectors, surveyors, architects and engineers, and other professionals.

Commercial Litigation

Rob has represented clients in a wide variety of complex commercial, contract and corporate litigation matters, including shareholder and partnership disputes, business “divorce” and corporate/ LLC/ partnership dissolution proceedings, employer unfair competition claims involving non-compete agreements, trade secrets, trademarks, confidentiality agreements and business defamation.
