

Ryan George Ritenour

Associate

ryan.ritenour@wilsonelser.com

Dallas, TX – 214.774.4513

Ryan Ritenour is an experienced litigator who defends a wide range of claims, including trucking and transportation, premises liability, and general casualty matters. He has litigated numerous cases in state and federal courts in Texas, second-chairing more than five jury trials. He currently serves as counsel to a multinational technology company.

Before joining Wilson Elser, Ryan practiced at a well-known Texas defense firm, representing multinational businesses and insurance companies throughout the litigation process.

Transportation

As a member of Wilson Elser's Transportation Practice, Ryan brings extensive experience in accident investigation and reconstruction, biomechanics, fleet safety standards, and federal and state regulations. He is well-versed in defending businesses and insurance companies in all aspects of transportation litigation.

Education

- Baylor Law School (J.D., 2018)
- University of Georgia (B.S., cum laude, 2014)

Bar Admissions

- Texas

Professional Affiliations

Dallas Association of Young Lawyers

Services

- Commercial Litigation
- Transportation