

Sam Mahler

Associate

sam.mahler@wilsonelser.com

Boston, MA – 617.422.5348

Sam Mahler represents insurance carriers in a wide range of professional liability coverage disputes. His practice focuses on insurance coverage determinations and bad faith litigation arising under directors and officers (D&O) policies and errors and omissions (E&O) policies.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Sam was a research assistant to professors at the University of Connecticut School of Law and the University of Pennsylvania Carey Law School, where he contributed to the Directors & Officers Coverage Litigation Tracker. In addition, Sam was published in the 2025 Connecticut Law Review for his Note: "The (Quorum) Call is Coming from Inside the House: Incongruity Between the Current Interpretation of the Quorum Clause and the Supreme Court's First Congress Canon."

Education

- University of Connecticut School of Law (J.D., with honors, 2025)
 - Operations Manager, Connecticut Law Review
 - President, Corporate and Securities Law Society
 - Certificate in Insurance Law and Regulation
 - CALI Award for Excellence in Admiralty Law and International Business Transactions
- Wheaton College, Massachusetts (B.A., 2019)

Bar Admissions

- Massachusetts

Services

- Insurance & Reinsurance Coverage

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court, District of Massachusetts

Professional Affiliations

Massachusetts Bar Association