Miami, FL – 305.395.5579

Sonia Niekrasz represents clients in all aspects of civil litigation. Her practice focuses on the defense of various general liability matters, including product liability, premises liability and construction disputes. Sonia effectively handles matters involving admiralty and maritime law.

Prior to joining Wilson Elser, Sonia worked at a national litigation firm in Miami, specializing in complex litigation for corporate clients. During law school, she was a judicial intern for the Honorable Ruth Pickholz in the New York State Supreme Court. Sonia gained valuable experience as a summer intern at a premier New York City practice. Born in Poland, Sonia came to the United States at nineteen and proudly became a United States citizen in 2024.
