

Victor N. Ang

Associate

victor.ang@wilsonelser.com

Houston, TX – 713.353.2061

Victor Ang represents physicians and other medical providers in all stages of civil litigation. Coming from a family with a medical background, Victor understands the challenges faced by health care professionals in providing the best medical care. Victor's knowledge of health care law is a strategic asset in the defense of medical providers working in various specialties.

Medical Malpractice & Health Care Law

Victor has defended medical providers in malpractice cases involving various medical conditions, such as thiamine deficiency, Takotsubo cardiomyopathy and systemic lupus erythematosus.

Commercial Litigation

Victor has served as second chair in two commercial litigation trials.

Education

- Texas A&M University (LL.M., 2022)
- University of Pennsylvania Carey School of Law (J.D., 2007)
- Rice University (B.A., 2004)

Bar Admissions

- Texas

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court, Southern District of Texas

Services

- Medical Malpractice & Health Care
- Commercial Litigation
- Professional Liability & Services

- U.S. District Court, Western District of Texas

Professional Affiliations

- Houston Bar Association
- Texas Aggie Bar Association
- Greater Houston Society for Healthcare Risk Management

Representative Matters

Obtained summary judgment in favor of hospital system, with the defense that the hospital involved in a premises liability claim was owned by a joint venture owned by a subsidiary of the hospital system.

Represented hospital system in a wrongful death action filed against multiple defendants. Joint motion for summary judgment filed by all defendants was granted by the court.